Meet Simon Smith Executive Headteacher

Simon comes to Lamledge School with varying experiences of several educational settings. Simon joined Outcomes First Group in August 2018 and is the current Headteacher at The Wenlock School which is based in Dudley. Since January 2022, Simon has supported Lamledge School as Peer Governor so knows the pupils and staff well. Simon is very much looking forward to the opportunity of driving the school forward especially around the vocational and academic offer. Simon has recently completed a Masters in Educational Leadership at the University of Birmingham to professionally develop and support schools within Outcomes First Group.

Simon is looking forward to supporting Lamledge School during the next phase of the Lamledge journey. Simon values the importance of every child and what each child can offer and achieve in the correct school environment. Simon not only enjoys the academic achievements of pupils but the personal development of pupils in supporting each pupil in becoming the best person they can be when they leave the school. Simon is looking forward to continuing the work that is already in place with all the pupils, families and external agencies at Lamledge School in the continued drive for excellence.
