The many meanings of "love"

The word "love" is a versatile term that can be used to express a wide range of emotions and feelings.

On one hand, it can refer to a deep affection or attachment towards someone or something, such as the love a parent has for their child, or the love one may feel towards a pet.

This kind of love is often characterised by warmth, tenderness, and a desire to protect and care for the beloved.

On the other hand, "love" can also refer to a passionate, romantic feeling between two individuals.

This kind of love often involves intense emotions, such as infatuation, longing, and desire.

Romantic love can be both exhilarating and overwhelming, and it can lead people to do extraordinary things for their beloved.

Whether it's a simple gesture of affection or a grand romantic gesture, the power of love can be a driving force in people's lives.

Did you know?

Often the word 'love' is used more than 'like'
e.g. 'I love fish and chips'.

Definition of Love

"the deepest kind of love, 'true' love, involves caring, sacrifice, giving without expecting anything in return, putting the other person's feelings first, and accepting the other person for what they are. Love in this depth is not selfish and there can be no manipulation"

The Bible's Depiction of Love

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.

ACTIVITY

The Love Test

For each of the following, decide whether this is a sign your partner truly loves you.

IS IT LOVE?	YES	NO
They are incredibly romantic, and lavish you with gifts
They move really fast in the relationship
They get jealous easily, and want you for themselves
They dislike your friends, and make sure you know it
They always worry about you
They check up on your internet history
You'll feel like you're with two different people

The Five Love Languages

People show love in many different ways. These ways are often referred to as "love languages". It's important to note that everyone is different and what works for one person may not for another.
